PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TRACY PAPE
2022 PLAA PRESIDENT

I can't tell you how excited I am that we are finally able to have this conference. After postponing 2 years in a row, we are finally going to make it to Oglebay. For those that have attended previous conferences, I am sure you have missed them as much as I have. For those that haven't attended, I would highly recommend that you make this your first one. The speakers they have lined up have been anxiously awaiting the opportunity to share their knowledge with us and this appears to be a top-notch educational experience. In addition to the education, there will be plenty of fun activities which I am sure we could all use after the stress and uncertainty of the last 2 years. I look forward to seeing you all in Oglebay!

THE HAPPY HOUR EFFECT:

5 POWERSHOTS TO CHARGE UP YOUR WORK AND LIFE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14 — 9:15-10:30 A.M.

KRISTEN BROWN

Unblock your best self with easy, fun, and powerful ideas to amp up your engagement, reconnect with your people, and recharge your body and mind for success at work and at home.

Kristen will use her Happy Hour Effect framework to help you gain perspective on the many moving pieces of your work and personal lives so you make better decisions, prioritize the right goals, elevate our presence, and boost your productivity even when the pressure is on.

Key Takeaways:

- Know Your Triggers – Identify your unique personal and professional stress cues and stress cures so you can course correct quickly and stay on track.
- Grow Your Momentum – You will identify ways to be more connected, productive, and excited about your work and life even during stress and change.
- Show Your Awesome – You will learn how to manage your presence and energy to reinforce credibility, likeability, and trust.

Kristen is a keynote speaker, online trainer, bestselling author, energy mastery expert, widowed mom, and futurist who can help you and your team power up the plan and path to your goals.

She gets the challenges that busy professionals face having lived it in the trenches for 15 years in corporate America. And as a young widowed mom she gets many of the common challenges most people face in their lives – loss, money, job stress, parenting, health, and more.

She uses this deep insight, her Master's-level education and certifications, and ability to connect to and energize an audience to make them the star of the show by adding humor and weaving in relevant stories that resonate far beyond the stage and online platforms.

Want to use her as a consultant or interim Chief People or Wellness Officer? She has the broad knowledge and experience to provide fresh perspectives and drive accountability and action on your project and strategic initiatives.

Kristen will motivate your group with low-stress, high-success ideas for GROWTH that will directly impact the bottom line by boosting sales, leadership, performance, and profits!

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO BE CYBER SECURITY & TECHNOLOGICALLY COMPETENT

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14 — 10:45-11:45 A.M.

ALICIA SLADE
PLUMMER SLADE, INC

As a Legal Administrator, educating the partners of the law firm about technology and cyber security can be challenging. As soon as you say the words "cyber security," most attorneys will quickly announce that they change their passwords, and then get a glazed look in their eyes. There are many more components of cyber security and technology that are important for them to understand in addition to password changes. Additionally, when the firm's annual renewal for Cyber Insurance is due, you must convey to the partners what should be done technologically to get the "No" answers to "Yes" on the renewal form. This seminar will review what you need to know to be cyber security and technologically competent to educate attorneys at your firm.

Alicia Slade is the President of Plummer Slade, Inc., a computer networking, Managed Services Provider (MSP) and IT solutions firm located in downtown Pittsburgh. Ms. Slade has been providing technical consulting services to small to medium-sized businesses for over thirty years. She has a specialty practice area in law offices and a concentration in Cyber Security and Compliancy.

Alicia earned her Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from Westminster College. She earned a Master of Science in Information Science and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Pittsburgh. She holds current industry certifications for several law office specific software applications.

Alicia has created a team of technology professionals that install and support on premise and Cloud-based solutions, along with providing Managed Services and Managed Security Services to clients. Ms. Slade's company is renowned for high quality, excellent technical service, and has been honored as one of only three companies to be endorsed by the Allegheny County Bar Association (ACBA).

Alicia has been a speaker for the Allegheny County Bar Association (ACBA) Section meetings and CLE courses. She has also been a speaker for the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) CLE courses, the Pittsburgh Land Title Association (PLTA) conferences, and the Pittsburgh Legal Administrators Association PLAA) conferences. Ms. Slade has been a contributing writer for the Pittsburgh Legal Journal (PLJ). She has been a quarterly contributing writer for the Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) Family Section Newsletter, Technology Corner.

Alicia serves as the Chairperson for the Slippery Rock University, Information Science Program, Board of Visitors. A board of IT professionals that consult to the department regarding curriculum and provide seminars for students.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14 — 1:30-2:30 P.M.

LAURA TAYLOR
LEGALSIFTER

Laura Taylor from LegalSifter will discuss what impact A.I. is having on the legal industry. She will explain how A.I. is being used in the legal space and give us a brief look at the legal A.I. landscape. She will demonstrate A.I. software to show how the technology can add efficiency and lower costs for clients.

As Vice President of Growth & Partnerships - Enterprise, Laura leads the team that is responsible for our Combined Intelligence Partner Program and growing our engagements with Enterprise clients. She has nearly twenty years of experience in the areas of operations, process development, and strategic planning. Laura most recently served as Vice President of Operations at Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers, where she was responsible for delivering strong business performance, building processes and efficiencies, and leading organizational change. Before Ritchie Bros., she spent seven years providing sourcing procurement solutions and consultation to clients at Ariba/FreeMarkets, and five years in sourcing strategy and procurement at Medrad. Laura earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a Paralegal Certification from Duquesne University.

MAKING YOUR WEBSITE WORK FOR YOU

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14 — 2:30-3:30 P.M.

MARISSA LUZNAR
RISS MARKETING

You know your law firm needs a website, but what comes next isn't always clear. A great website helps your law firm stand out, draws in your ideal client, and provides value to clients and potential clients. For your law firm to attract new clients and remain successful, a strong web presence is a must. Your website is the place to show your authority and expertise, as well as drive traffic and inquiries for your law firm.

Whether your website is brand new or was designed ten years ago, there are a few critical, yet simple, ways to leverage its content and layout to attract and convert potential clients. Repurposing content, strong calls-to-action, utilizing 'lead magnets,' and more — Marissa will lay out a series of strategies to help transform your website from a just place where people look for attorney contact information to an actual contributing rainmaker for your firm.

Marissa Luznar is the founder and CEO of Riss Marketing, a B2B marketing firm that works collaboratively with law firms to develop a customized marketing strategy tailored to their practice areas and business goals. Marissa is a seasoned marketer with 15+ years of experience in the communications field. In addition to working in marketing and PR consulting for nearly five years, she has worked in law firm operations, legal marketing, and government communications. Her mission is to use that experience to become a welcomed ally to in-house marketers and law firm leaders who are often wearing too many hats and searching for a budget-friendly solution to their marketing needs.

TECH TIPS — 60 TIPS IN 60 MINUTES

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14 — 3:45-4:45 P.M.

Rick Topping and Greg Rush along with moderator Seth Fosmire will present 60 tech tips in 60 minutes focusing on Cyber Security Awareness, Microsoft Office, Home Automation and Web Conferencing.

RICK TOPPING
CEEVA

Rick Topping is an Information Technology professional who has been working in the business since 2001. He is a high honor graduate of Pittsburgh Technology College. His work career started as a technical support representative for a small IT services company in Monroeville who serviced companies such as the PA Turnpike Commission and Dick Corporation.

In 2005 Rick made the move to Ceeva, Inc. in downtown Pittsburgh. He started as a technical support engineer but found his way into sales and management. He evolved his position and career to help grow the business by increasing technology support, sales, staff and providing paramount service to Ceeva's customer base.

Rick has created strategic partnerships between Ceeva and other industry vendors to provide best in breed service. The Ceeva team has been created and managed by Rick and has been awarded with certifications, awards, and top-tier partnership levels with companies such as Microsoft, Cisco, VMWare, Datto and more. Rick has focused a lot of his time on cyber-security awareness training for his clients, staff and even his family. Rick has been married to his wife Megan since 2005 and has two sons: Brendan and Corey. He currently has plans to start a video podcast and continues to play music for fun.

GREG RUSH
GRB LAW

Greg has been the Information Systems Manager for GRB Law for the past 22 years and has been working in the legal community for the last 27 years. At GRB he works on all aspects of the 27 Attorney Firm's 3 office network, including all hardware and software being employed on all servers and workstations.

Greg joined the PLAA in 1997 and has served on the Board of Directors as President (2017-18), the group's first Technology Chair (3 terms), the Communications Committee Chair (2 terms), and on several Education Conference Committees including being the Golf Chair (5 times). He is currently serving as Chair for the Communications Committee. Additionally he has been a moderator for the group's ListServe (2001 - 2017).

Greg has a Bachelor of Science degree in Operations Management from Penn State University. He and his wife Natalie have been married for 16 years and they have two daughters - Sophia (14) & Sarah (10).

SETH FOSMIRE
CEEVA

MODERATOR

Seth is the Senior Sales Executive at Ceeva for the past half decade. He speaks about technology in lay persons' terms so that it's easy for clients to understand how they can achieve optimum productivity and efficiency through use of technology.

Ceeva has been a business partner to the PLAA for many years and for the past 5, Seth has participated in numerous PLAA vendor shows, events and CLE courses.

Seth resides in Houston, PA with his wife, Laurie, of 17 years and their two sons Van and Alex. When he's not introducing new clients to Ceeva, you can find him jogging, cycling or hiking with his family and friends.

DUDE, WHAT'S MY JOB?

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15 — 10:15-11:15 A.M.

STEPHANIE GRAY
JB TRAINING SOLUTIONS

Boomers, Generation X, and Millennials now all share an office with a fresh crop of 20-something new hires. It's tough to manage a team of newly minted professionals and build a collaborative workforce with so many different styles and preferences, but now is the best time to discover the secrets for working with this unique, young crowd. Remember, they're not better, not worse – just different.

Through a look at historical events, participants discover the key differences between the generations and the defining moments that rocked their world and shaped their behaviors at work. Everyone identifies common workplace tendencies and learns tips to help assimilate 20-somethings to a team of tenured professionals. We identify the innate variations in generational attitudes by introducing the "Old School" versus "New School" mindset when it comes to feedback, motivation, promotions, patience, flexibility, and more. Participants put these tips into action by working through real-world situations and hands-on experiences.

Participants leave this program with the ability to:
- Understand the historical and societal trends that shaped each generation
- Recognize the strengths and weaknesses of every generation
- Set and meet the expectations of high-achieving employees
- Motivate and inspire team members to boost job performance
- Create a work environment that is structured but empowering
- Identify what traditional managerial techniques work and which ones do not

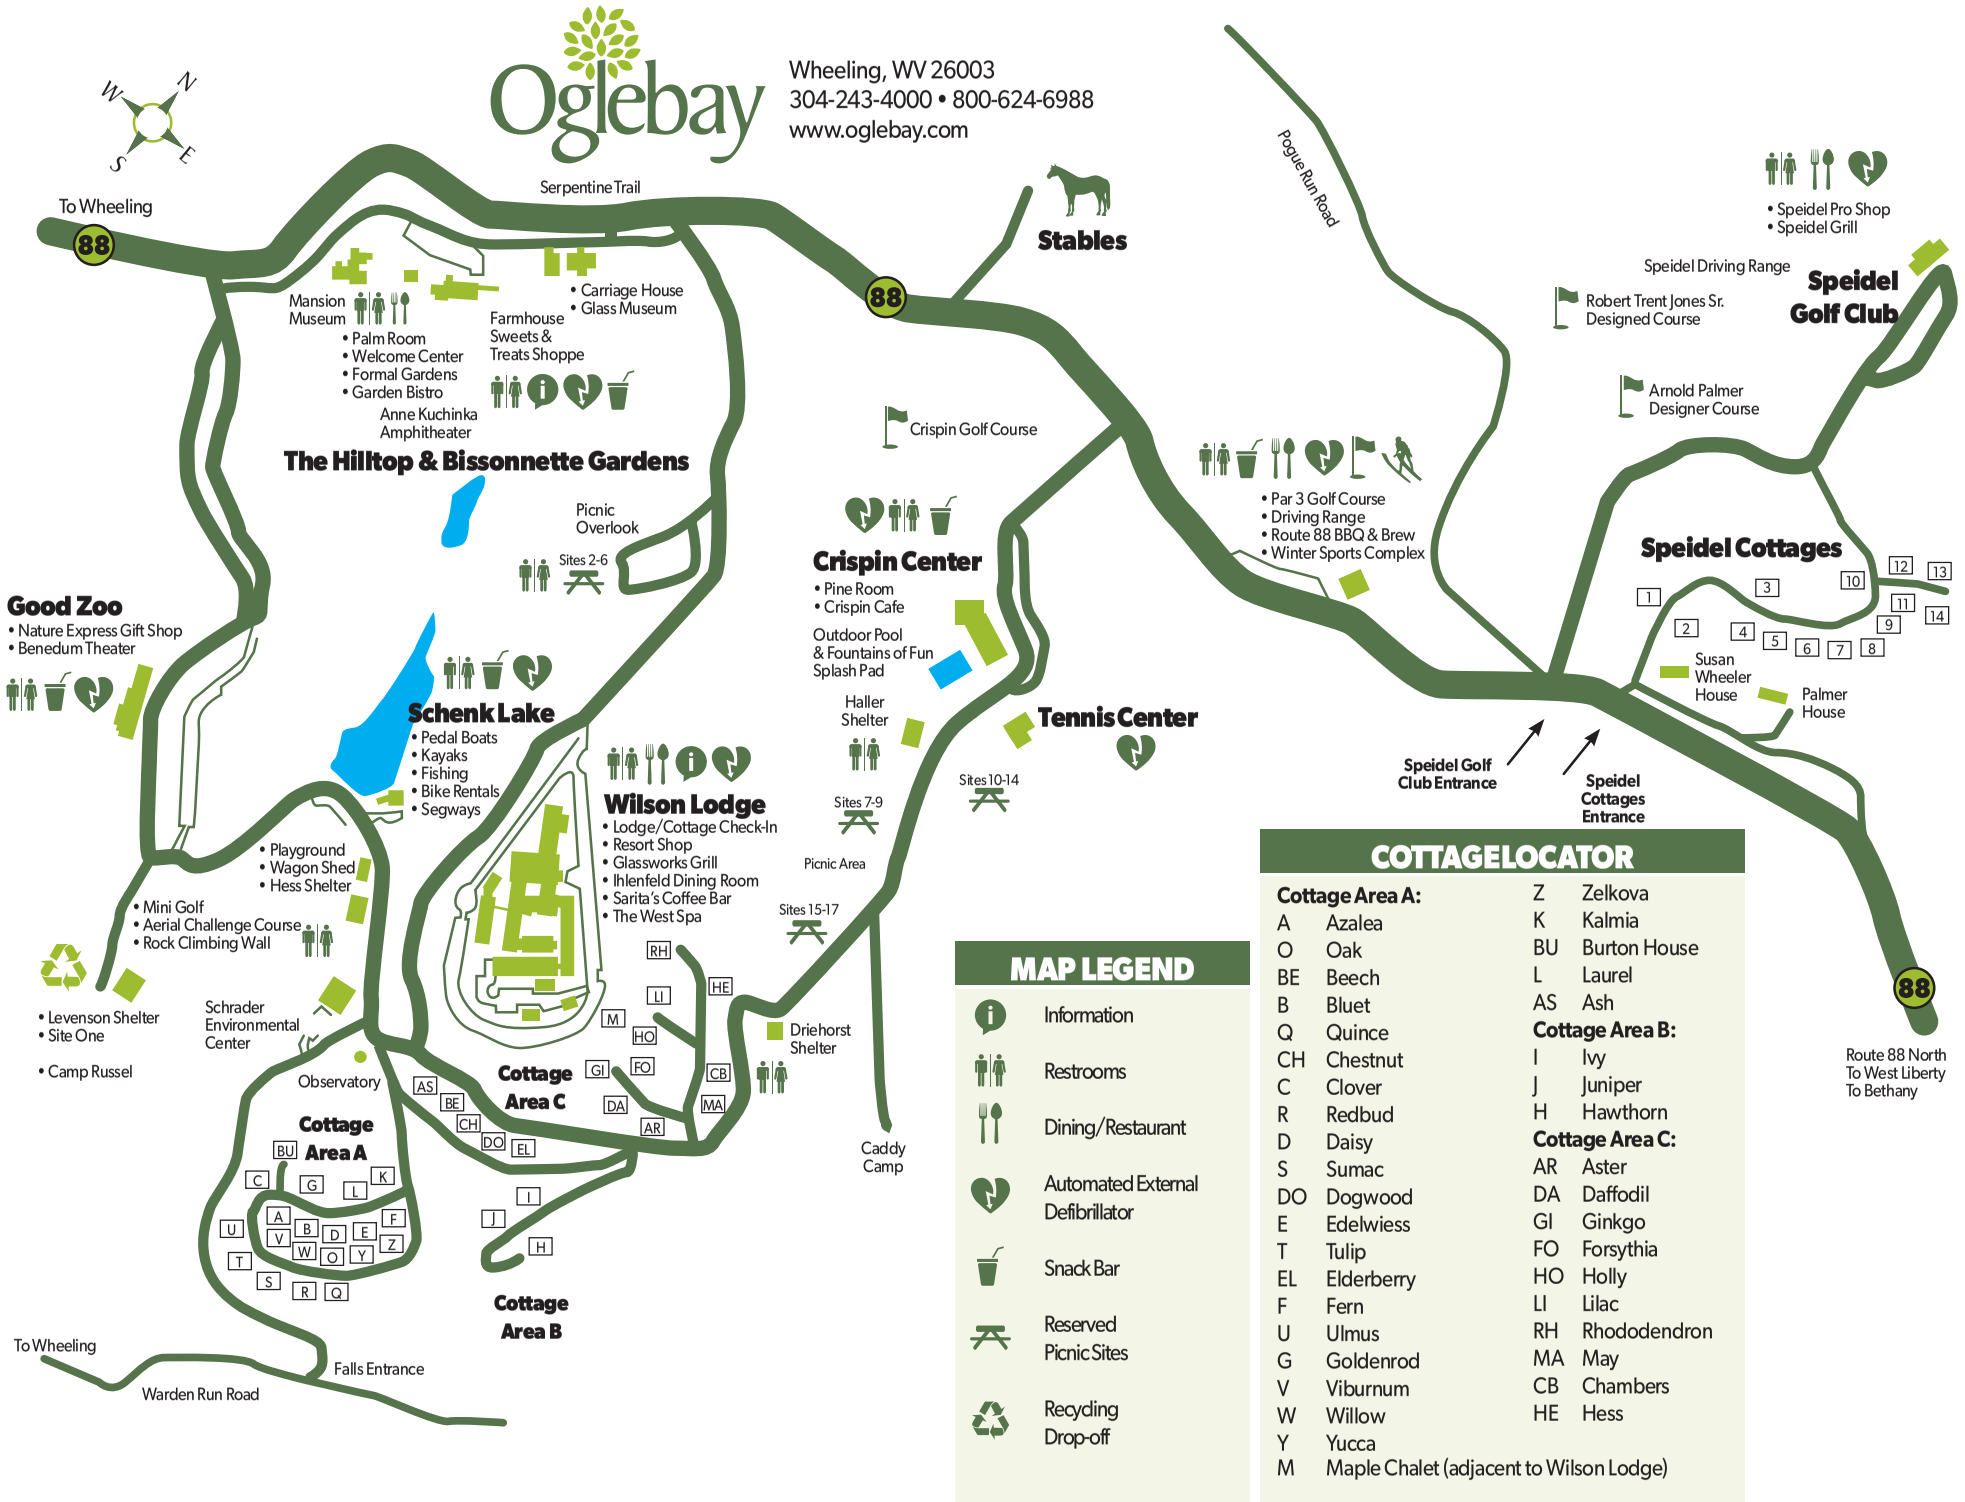

Stephanie Gray is an engaging and charismatic trainer, facilitator, speaker and coach with diverse business experience spanning the entertainment, medical device sales, and automotive marketing industries. Stephanie now fulfills her greatest purpose by motivating and guiding professionals to reach their full potential through learning and development workshops and individualized coaching. With an innate knack for storytelling, Stephanie leads with a jovial sense of humor and shares personal anecdotes to drive lessons home. Borrowing from her prior experience interviewing A-list celebrities, Stephanie knows how to elicit participation and engagement from even the toughest audience. As a supportive mentor and trusted leader, she brings a wealth of knowledge in all areas of communication, leadership, sales, and team collaboration.

When she isn't delivering training, Stephanie is most likely eating large quantities of food in a single sitting. You can also find her running outside (…or walking, if she's feeling less ambitious), enjoying live music, or treating herself to a Korean body scrub.

The West Spa
Relax. Refresh. Rejuvenate. The West Spa offers therapeutic services, using the finest products. Inhale the calm and exhale the stress as you enjoy massage therapy, manicures, pedicures, body treatments, healing therapies including Reiki, Reflexology and Thai Yoga, facial treatments and waxing.

The Oglebay Good Zoo
The only AZA accredited zoo in West Virginia, the zoo features over 50 species, many of which are rare or endangered. From feeding the red pandas to walking through Lorkeet Landing, to riding the train through the exhibits, take a walk on the wild side and get up close and personal with the animals at the zoo.

Oglebay Tennis Center
The Oglebay Tennis Center, located outdoors across from the Pine Room, features 10 Har-Tru courts and is open daily May through October, weather permitting.

Outdoor Pool - Crispin Center
With its large beautiful swimming pool, golf shop and public areas, the Crispin Center has changed little since its construction. However, in 2016, the Fountains of Fun Splash and Spray Park was added and provides a fun and safe place for children to cool off in the summer heat.

Indoor Pool
Relax in the heated indoor pool, jacuzzi or sauna, all located at Wilson Lodge. Also enjoy a newly renovated fitness center and movement studio located on the lower level in Wilson Lodge.

Horseback Riding
The Oglebay Stables provide trail rides, group lessons, pony rides and therapeutic riding designed to benefit individuals with disabilities. Open daily, weather permitting.

Schenk Lake
Schenk Lake is an active, bustling playground for all ages. Enjoy the pedal boats and kayak rentals, fishing, miniature golf, a playground and walking and jogging trails. Located just a short distance below Wilson Lodge.

Oglebay Institute's Mansion Museum
This 1846 Mansion Museum was the former estate of Cleveland industrialist Earl W. Oglebay, who purchased the mansion and surrounding acres to use as a summer home. Upon his death in 1926, the philanthropist willed his spectacular country estate to the City of Wheeling.

Featuring a dozen period rooms highlighting Wheeling's earliest settlement through the opulent Edwardian era, guests will be delighted to discover impressive collections of American furniture, china, silver, glass, pewter, toys and textiles.

Oglebay Institute's Glass Museum
Located in the lower level of the Carriage House Glass, the Glass Museum features the history of 3,000 examples of Wheeling glass made from 1829-1939. Displays include cut lead crystal and glass from various time periods, as well as showcasing the history of glass in the Ohio Valley. Explore this one of kind glass museum on a self-guided tour. Then see first-hand how the glass pieces are made, using a hand blown technique that makes every piece unique.

Bissonnette Gardens
The Bissonnette Gardens are a re-creation of many of the garden areas that existed in Oglebay in the early 1900s. Red brick walkways welcome visitors to wander through the ever-changing flower displays, hanging baskets and majestic trees. These lovely sites are even more memorable by the addition of soft landscape lighting and water displays.

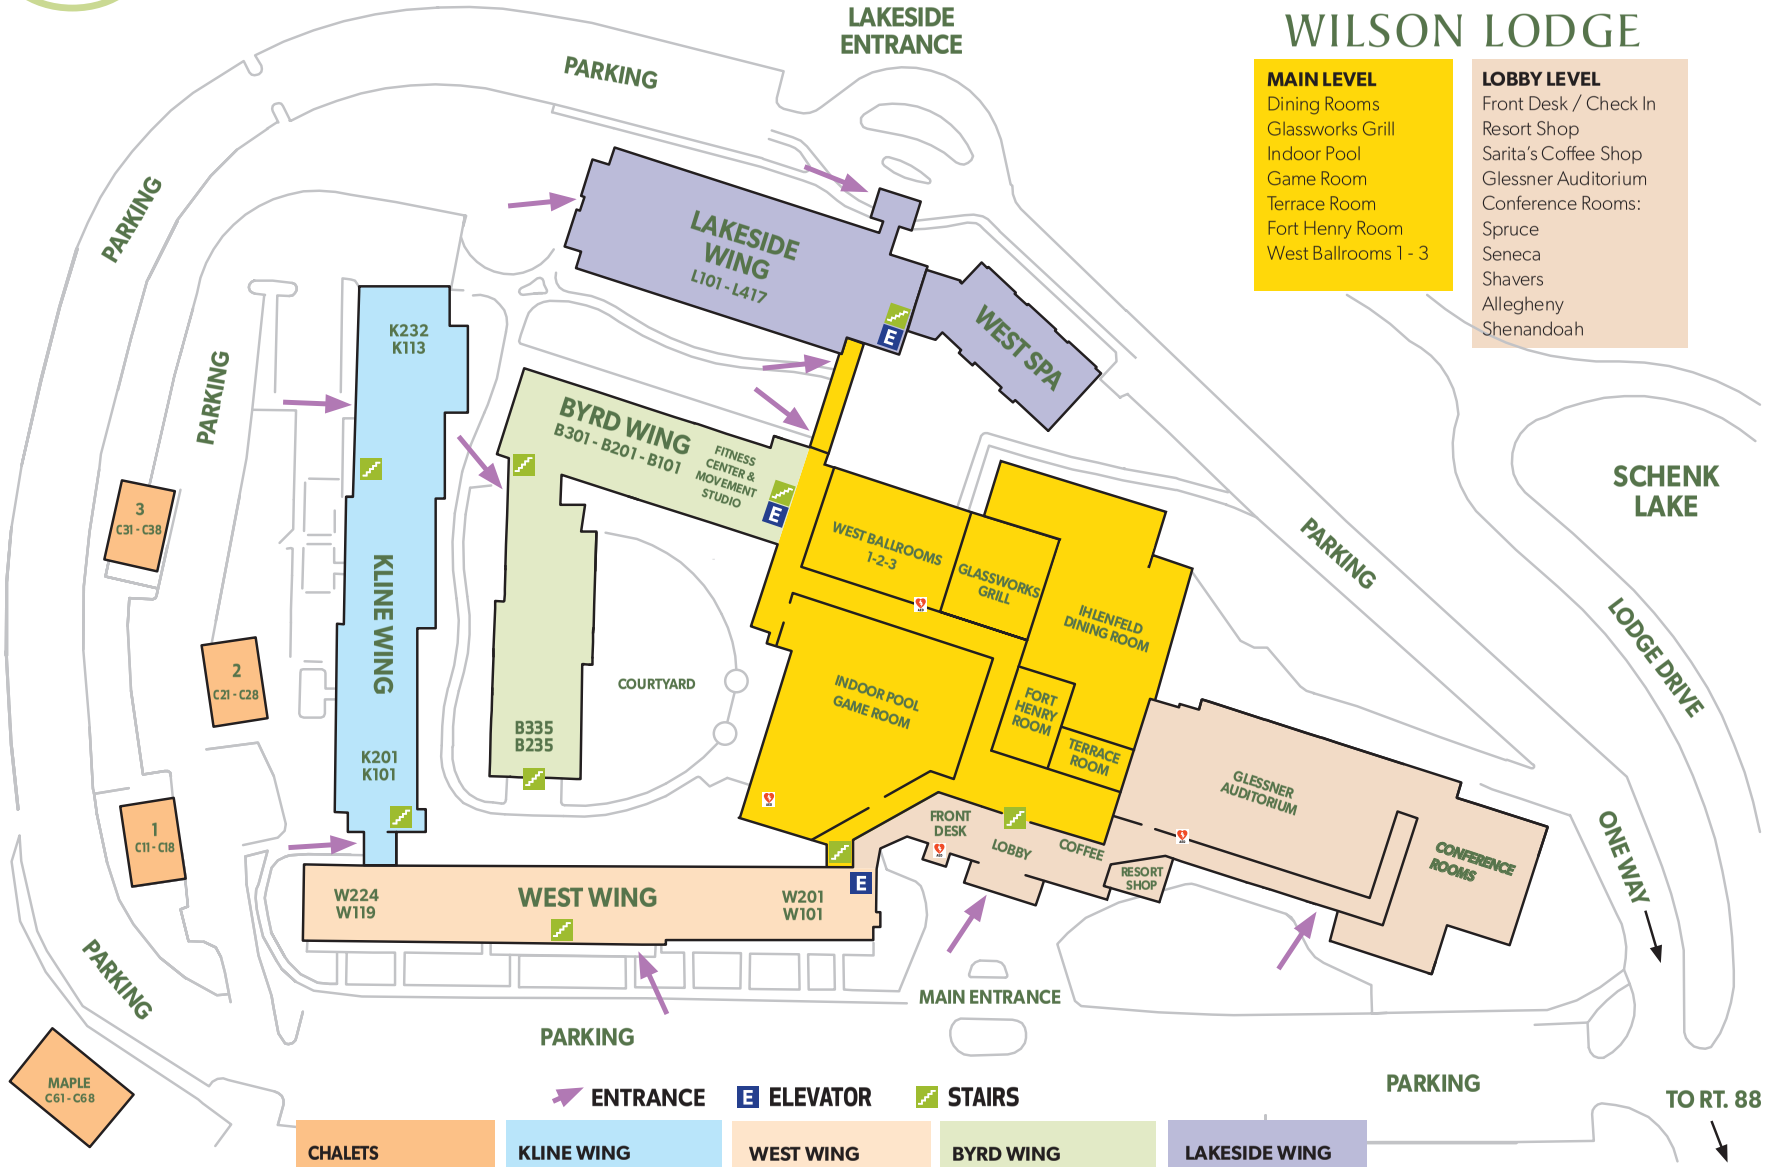

Schrader Environmental Center
The Schrader Center offers year-round opportunities to explore and discover the beauty and intrigue of the natural world though dozens of seasonal programs. Whether in the Children's Awareness Area, in the Carson Wildflower and Butterfly Garden or along the trails of the A.B. Brooks Discovery Trail System, individuals and families can engage in hands-on nature discovery and outdoor fun. A regional showcase for "Green Architecture" and environmental awareness, the state-of-the-art Henry Stifel Schrader Environmental Education Center includes 97 percent recycled materials and many energy saving features that reduce fossil fuel usage.

Wheeling Park
Located approximately six miles from Oglebay, this 406-acre activity center is rich in history. Take a refreshing dip in the Olympic-sized pool or join the hundreds of adventure seekers who brave the twists and turns as they tube down the giant water slide. Not the adventurous type? Enjoy a 9-hole golf course open year round, a giant playground, pedal boating on the lake, a miniature golf course, an ice skating and hockey rink and indoor/outdoor tennis courts.
